THE GREAT USURPATION.

Unconstitutional Action of the President---He is Convicted by His Own Admission.

No Authority for Military Interference with a State Legislature.

THE PEOPLE AND THE PRESS ALARMED

WHAT WILL THE END BE?

[From the New York Herald, November 29th.]

We congratulate the country that the exciting day at the Capitol of South Carolina yesterday passed without any breach of the peace. Whatever there may be of shame or reproach connected with the extraordinary proceedings at Columbia does not lie at the door of Wade Hampton and his supporters. We doubt if the citizens of New York or Massachusetts would have gone through a similar trial with equal credit. If, in a contested election, when both parties claimed the Legislature of this State, Federal troops had been stationed at Albany; if the soldiers had taken possession of the State House at midnight preceding the day when the Legislature is required to meet; if they had barred the entrance to members claimed to have been elected by one political party; if they had thus given the organization of the Legislature to a party which had to strain the law to give it the false appearance of a quorum, we doubt if the citizens of New York would have been as patient, as forbearing, as self-controlled as the citizens of South Carolina showed themselves to be yesterday when Federal bayonets hedged the passage to the legislative hall against persons who had at least a colorable claim to take part in the proceedings.

The bearing of the South Carolina citizens in the great trial to which they were subjected yesterday was admirable. There has never been a more critical and dangerous conjuncture in the history of American politics. The whole country had its attention fixed on the proceedings at Columbia, and there was a great strain of anxiety and apprehension lest scenes of violence and bloodshed should set the whole country on fire and inaugurate a new civil war. Public passions are in so inflamable a state that a mere spark might have kindled a conflagration, of which the consequences would have been appalling. Happily, no spark fell into the dry tinder, and we felicitate the country that the point of danger is passed.

The credit of preserving the peace at Columbia yesterday is due to General Wade Hampton, the Democratic candidate for Governor. He had only to lift a finger, he had only to signify the slightest assent, and the State House would have been rescued from the Federal soldiers and his supporters could have controlled the organization of the Legislature. The Federal troops were only three hundred, and there were at least eight thousand Democrats present in Columbia accustomed to the use of arms, with arms probably upon their persons, who could have crumpled and annihilated the small Federal force had they given way to their indignation and their sense of wrong. It is fortunate that they have a leader so strong, so sagacious, so self-poised and so thoroughly trusted as Wade Hampton. He perfectly understands the situation, and, if we may judge by his conduct yesterday, he will make no mistakes. There was danger at one critical moment that the excited citizens might press their way into the State House in spite of the Federal soldiers, but General Hampton came forward and made a speech to the incensed multitude, which calmed their passions and caused them peaceably to disperse. His supporters have too much confidence in him to do anything against his wishes, and he understands the situation too well to permit any resort to violence. He is too clear-sighted and cautious to give the Republicans such an advantage, and we are encouraged to hope that this difficulty will be settled by peaceful methods.

It is clear enough that the use made of the Federal troops yesterday was without any constitutional warrant. At the very utmost there is nothing which they could legally do beyond the preservation of the local peace. But they undertook to decide what members are entitled to seats in a State Legislature. They assumed to overrule the judgment of the Supreme Court of the State, and to decide that claimants to seats should not appear to present their claims. There is no Federal law which authorizes this kind of interference. The constitution and laws of South Carolina make the Legislature itself the sole judge of the election of its own members and their titles to seats. But the Federal troops took the question out of their hands and decided in advance that Democratic members should not only be excluded from seats, but that they should not even be allowed to enter the legislative hall to present the evidence of their title. There could not be a more wanton, monstrous and indefensible violation of law than this assumption by the Federal army of a right to decide who had and who had not been elected to a State Legislature. This is not merely the opinion of the Herald, it is the opinion of the ablest Republican lawyers. If we had space for quotations we could show that it was the opinion of Mr. Evarts, Judge Selden, and the most respected members of the Bar of this State when a similar outrage on law and decency was perpetrated in Louisiana in January, 1875. The whole speech of Mr. Evarts at the Cooper Institute in that memorable month was an argument to prove that no such power exists and a vigorous denunciation of the attempt to exercise it. Even President Grant himself was forced to admit that the Federal Government has no such authority. A few days after the great indignation meeting in New York he sent to Congress a special Message on Louisiana affairs, in which he admitted that the troops in New Orleans had exceeded their authority. He professed that the interference with the Louisiana Legislature was without his direction or orders, and without his previous knowledge. He told Congress that his first information of that transaction came to him through the newspapers, after the thing had been done. He proceeded to make a formal and emphatic disclaimer of any Federal right to interfere with the Legislature of a State. We may be permitted by way of reminder, to quote his language:—"My first intimation," said President Grant on that occasion, was from the papers of the morning of the 5th of January. I did not know that any such thing was anticipated, as no orders or suggestions were given to any military officer in that State prior to the occurrence."

Now mark the language in which President Grant proceeded to deny and disclaim all right of interference. He stated the true doctrine on this subject with a precision and force which would have left Mr. Evarts himself no ground of objection. "I am well aware," said President Grant in his special Message of January 13, 1875, "that any military interference by the officers or troops of the United States with the organization of a State Legislature or any of its proceedings, or with any civil department of the government is repugnant to our ideas of government. I can conceive of no case, not involving rebellion or insurrection, where such interference by authority of the general government ought to be permitted or can be justified." President Grant, on that occasion, shielded himself from censure by professing that the interference with the Louisiana Legislature was without his direction, sanction or knowledge, and to clear himself more fully he made the sound statement of constitutional doctrine which we have just quoted from his Louisiana Message. But can he pretend ignorance now? Can he expect anybody to believe that what was done at Columbia yesterday was done with his sanction? Unless he can plead ignorance and disclaim responsibility now, as he did in the Louisiana case, he stands condemned out of his own mouth. But who will accept such a plea with respect to the transactions at Columbia yesterday? Judged by his own declarations the military interference yesterday was utterly without warrant or justification. For him to repeat his former plea of ignorance in this case would be ridiculous. If he ordered this plain violation of law, or if, with so many reasons for supposing it would take place, he did not prevent it, he must shoulder the whole responsibility. Judged by his own declarations to Congress it is a monstrous violation of law and of the spirit of our institutions. With that message on record we do not see how he can escape on a plea of ignorance. If the law is such as he described it to be he has clearly made himself liable to impeachment by this new interference with a State Legislature. Unfortunately for him the impeaching power is in the hands of his enemies, and there is no reason why they should not exercize it. We presume the first business of the House of Representatives, when it assembles next March, will be to vote his impeachment and appoint a committee to draw up the articles. It will be easily made to appear that President Grant has not only violated the Constitution but sinned against knowledge. The passage we have quoted from his Message leaves him without excuse.

"Shameless Partisanship."

The Evening Post is much disgusted at the action of Senator Kelley in the matter of the ineligible Presidential Elector in Oregon. That journel says:

"One of the most shameless pieces of partisanship yet witnessed, is that of United States Senator Kelley's appearance as a partisan council urging the Governor of his State to the exercise of what is at least a very doubtful power. This same Senator will doubtless claim the right to sit as judge upon results he has attempted to influence as a voluntary and partisan advocate."

Shocking is it not? Almost as bad as a racally Returning Board robbing the people of Louisiana of their votes, or as "bloodshed" Chandler prostituting the high position of member of the Federal Cabinet for low electioneering purposes; or as Grant organizing Legislatures with bayonets, or as Judge Bond setting the laws of South Carolina at defiance by interference from the Federal Circuit Court. These things were all bad, but none of them so frightfully wicked as for Senator Kelley to endeavor to show, that by the law of the land the Governor of Oregon ought not to issue a certificate of election to a man who, by the Constitution of the United States, is forbiden to hold the office. But then, what is the Constitution of the United States compared with the indispensible necessity of the Radicals securing that coveted vote? Nothing at all. That instrument was devised and framed by a set of old fogies, who no more dreamed of that brilliant invention, a carpet-bag Returning Board, than they did of insulting their own parents or stealing the people's money. How unfortunate they were that they did not live in an era when they could have witnessed, with wondering and awe-struck eyes, four perjured scoundrels like J. Madison Wells and his accomplices, treat the votes of thousands of American citizens as no more value than the withered grass of the prarie. How thankful we all ought to be that we live in the present enlightened period blessed with such consumate rascals as the carpet-baggers, who, in the twinkling of their villainous eyes, can turn a majority into a minority, or the converse of the proposition. Yet the possession of all these advantages are dulled and made valueless by the fact that Senator Kelley has had sufficient manliness, honesty and patriotism to do his utmost to declare and enforce the supreme law of the land. Was such mental and moral depravity ever before witnessed? Certainly not. The force of human turpitude could no further go.—Examiner.

When the cross-examination of the woman Eliza Pinkston revealed the fact that the terrible outrage which she testified had been perpetrated, not by white Democrats, but by Radical negroes, the only Republican present who was not dumbfounded and covered with confusion was the Hon. E. W. Stoughton. That eminent lawyer camly arose and remarked, "There is clearly a clerical error here."

What Governor Grover Says.

SALEM (Oregon), Dec. 7, 1876.—To the Editor of the New York Herald: At your request I give you some of the grounds of my action in granting certificates to Electors. In taking his oath of office the Governor is sworn to support the Constitution of the United States and of this State. In the election of President and Vice-President the Constitution of the United States is the paramount law. That instrument declares that no person holding an office under the United States shall be appointed an Elector. J. W. Watts, one of the Electors voted for in Oregon, was on the 7th day of November holding an office of trust and profit under the United States, to-wit, Postmaster at Fayette, in Yamhill County, and he has so held that office for more than three years. Many more than the number of votes constituting his majority had actually passed in and out of his office on official business. His official character was generally known, and was mentioned during political discussions of the canvass. The law was known and the fact was known, rendering it disgraceful for him to be an Elector. A protest was filed in the Executive office by prominent citizens, objecting to the issuance of a certificate to Watts as a person disqualified, accompanied by proof of his disqualification, and demanding the issue of the same to the eligible person having the next highest number of votes. A reply was filed, objecting to anything but a count of the votes and a certificate of the count, and making no denial of the disqualifying facts. It was ruled in the case that when the objection to an applicant's right to receive a certificate rests upon the ground that a constitutional prohibition is interposed, the Governor, acting under oath to support the Constitution, is bound to entertain and determine the question. Not only that, but he is to determine the question in such a way as to enforce the Constitutional mandate to the extent of his executive power. It was also held that the law and the fact being well known, the votes cast for the ineligible candidate cannot be counted for any purpose, and the eligible candidate having the next highest number of votes was duly elected. This ruling was based upon standard authorities, such as Cushing and Grant, the decisions of many Courts, like the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals of New York. The latter is also the uniform practice in the United States House of Representatives, and is in accordance with the great weight of all English authorities, both parliamentary and judicial. The law of Oregon providing for filling all vacancies in the Electoral College, recognizes a vacancy only in cases where there has been an incumbent, and such incumbent has died, has refused to act, neglected to stand, or otherwise absent. In this case there was no incumbent, unless the next highest candidate should take the position, and there was no vacancy which could be filled by the other members of the Electoral College. The next highest candidate eligible under the Constitution of the United States, was therefore certified to be duly elected. L. F. GROVER,

Governor of Oregon.

An Election Lie.

Why did not Gov. Kellogg prevent the fraud and intimidation of which he makes so much complaint in Louisiana? He is at the head of the State Government. All its subordinates are of his appointment. All the machinery of the election was completely under his control. The Federal troops could be had at any time for the asking. Prof. Sumner, of Yale, in his recent letter, says that "the election was held under a complicated and elaborate corps of officers, appointed by the State Government, and free from any of those popular checks, which we in the North regard as essential to self-Government." Further on he says he sees "no guarantee against fraud, except in the vigilance and interest of the opposing parties." Such guarantees exist in Louisiana, with the vast preponderance of the chances in favor of the party in power, which appoints all the officers of election, has the Federal officers on its side * * * and controls the Federal troops. The election law is intricate, and, while apparently adapted to provide for all contingencies, really creates a hundred technicalities and machinery which render popular elections impossible. The ingenuity with which devices are planned and practiced for producing fraudulent results is simply diabolical. The party in power, having control of this machinery, can make an election a mockery, and the community finds itself locked in a network of crafty arrangements, from which escape seems impossible. Against this prodigious tyranny the people of Louisiana have made one more united and determined effort." Remember that these are not the words of a politician or a stump-speaker. They are the deliberate expressions of a scholar, a Professor in one of the first American Colleges, a man with only a patriotic interest in politics, and a man, too, accustomed to study and weigh his words. Remember this, then try to believe that Governor Kellogg, with all this tremendous power, could not have prevented the frauds and violence and intimidation that he pretends characterized the election in the "bull-dozed" parishes! Yes, and prevented them by raising his little finger! The truth is that they did not exist, not even in Kellogg's imagination. It was not till after election that we heard anything of them. The whole story is an election lie, born of defeat and framed to secure fraud.

THE RADICAL REBELLION.—The following paragraphs says the Albany Argus of Nov. 28th, may explain the new rebellion inaugurated in South Carolina:

If Samuel J. Tilden is elected, will you allow him to be inaugurated?—Blaine.

If Samuel J. Tilden is elected, before he is inaugurated the streets will run with blood.—Kilpatrick.

By the blessing of God, the Republican party have held power for sixteen years, and I defy even Him to oust them.—Martin I. Townsend, M. C.

If Grant were to send soldiers to turn out the House of Representatives next week, and try to make himself dictator, says the N. Y. Sun, the Republican press generaly would applaud the act.

The Danger Which Overhangs the Republic.

[From the Journal of Commerce.]

The danger is most imminent. We do not refer now to the danger of rebellion, or revolution, or anarchy, or even any unrighteous conclusion as to the result of the recent election. After all legal remedies have been exhausted we should council submission to far greater wrongs than the defeat of the people's will by unscrupulous canvassers and dishonest Returning Boards, rather than see a single sword unsheathed in civil strife. Nothing can justify fratricidal war but the infliction of an outrage which is more tolerable than death. The trouble now upon us is the fruit of the unsettled condition of public affairs, and it is one which, if not soon arrested, will be past all remedy, no matter who shall sit in the Presidential chair.

Trade and commerce have felt the chill through all their veins, and the whole system is fast becoming paralyzed. At wholesale or retail, in store or factory or shop, all business is at a stand, or rapidly reaching this conclusion. The next step, if the wheels are not in motion, will be a widespread financial panic, touching every material interest, and sooner or later reaching with its gaunt skeleton fingers every home in the land.

No man with the incubus of this public restlessness upon him can embark in any serious enterprise with hope of profit. Negotations for new firms or partnerships are suspended; many engagements not yet ratified have been cancelled; and no one unless it is the professional politician, can look into the future, near or remote, without a strange misgiving as to what it has in store for him.

If the policy upon which certain unscrupulous political leaders seem to have settled is adopted without check from those to whom they look for support, we see no hope of improvement in the three months to come. Nor even then, though the crisis may be peacefully passed, and the new Administration be accepted as the ruling Government, will there be any lifting of the horrible weight from the public mind. Whether right or wrong, the feeling will be cherished by more than half the legal voters of the country that have been cheated out of a party triumph, and that power has not scrupled to perpetuate itself by an armed hand against the popular will, thus overthrowing the very foundation of a free Government.

From all that we can gather by personal intercourse with the strong and upright men of the Republican party, we can safely affirm that it is their conviction that Tilden was fairly elected and is entitled to the office. They are not willing to be held responsible for a contrary result, and yet they must see that if they sit still, the manipulations of those who have assumed control of the machinery will fasten the odium of defeating him upon the organization to which they belong.

The merchants, bankers, and men of business in this metropolis who have lent their aid to the dominant party, and have been more or less identified with it, cannot evade the responsibility which is thurst upon them by these passing events. If they neglect the duty of the hour they cannot hope to escape from the disastrous result.

Let Them Try it if They Dare.

The furious excitement after the election which blockaded the streets in front of the newspaper offices here as they had not been since Lincoln's assassination has now nearly subsided, and even the partisan Republicans begin to admit that Tilden is elected by the votes. The next step in the conspiracy of Blaine, Chandler and Co. against the peace of the country is to count Tilden out and Hayes in; and it begins to look as if this was fully resolved on by the worst element of the office-holding party at Washington. Let them try it if they dare! Tweed presumed too long on the forbearance of the people of New York—and where is he now? Blaine and his sort have played the game of Tweed upon a national arena, and their downfall, when they attempt to cheat the nation out of its choice for President, will be all the more dramatic and annihilating than Tweed's. They think the American people are fools—and they have some excuse for it, just as Tweed—but they will find the folly on the other side of the account. It is a desperate game the carpet-bag rascals of the South, aided by the Blaines and Chandlers of the North, are playing—the stakes are high, they think it pardonable to put a few aces up their sleeves now that luck has gone against them. But they will find their own followers deserting them when it comes to inaugurating a new civil war in order to thrust upon us a President we never elected. Certainly General Sherman, and probably even Sheridan and Grant themselves, will shrink at the last moment from fastening fraud upon the whole nation with the bayonet. They saw no harm in bayoneting a city or a State into submission to the Louisiana Returning Board; but to plaster forged certificates of the Louisiana election over the whole body politic is a very different matter, easy enough to conceive, but very hard to carry out.—Springfield Republican.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S VIEWS.—To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives: "The joint resolution entitled 'Joint resolution declaring certain States not entitled to representation in the Electoral College' has been signed by the Executive, in deference to the views of Congress implied in its passage and presentation to him. In his own views, however, the two houses of Congress convened under the twelfth article of the Constitution, have complete power to exclude from counting all electoral votes deemed by them to be illegal; and it is not competent for the Executive to defeat or obstruct that power by a veto, as would be the case if his action were at all essential in the matter. He disclaims all right of the Executive to interfere in any way in the canvassing or counting electoral votes, and also disclaims that by signing said resolution, he has expressed an opinion on the recitals of the preamble, or any judgement of his own upon the subject of the resolution."

Executive Mansion, Feb. 8th, 1865.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF YOLO COUNTY.

WOODLAND, CAL:

Thursday, Dec. 14th, 1876.

The Oregon Matter.

Our Republican friends did not dream of anything occurring to prevent the carrying out of their programme of "counting in" a constitutionally ineligible candidate for Presidential Elector in Oregon. Their attention was so firmly riveted upon the more flagrant action of their party managers and schemers in the three carpet-bagged Southern States that they seem to have forgotten that in Oregon there was a Democratic Governor who was sworn to obey and faithfully execute the laws of his State and of the United States. This is just what Governor Grover did in refusing to issue a certificate to one of the Hayes Electors who had been voted for and received a majority of the votes cast—this no one denies—but is prohibited by the Constitution of the United States, because he held an office under the Government at the time of his election, which made him ineligible, he having held the office of Postmaster. The proposition as to whether the fact that one of the Electors who was chosen by the citizens of Oregon was disqualified by the Constitution of our country entitles the next highest candidate voted for to the certificate of election, we will discuss in another article, giving authorities for the positions taken. The Courts have repeatedly decided, that where two candidates run for an office and the one elected was ineligible, the person receiving the next highest number of votes was entitled to the office. Were not this the case, the State of Oregon would not have that full representation to which she is entitled in the Electoral College. If the Republican party did not know the law, or knowingly disregarded its requirements, the managers of that party are to blame, and the party will have, with them, to suffer the consequences. Every citizen is presumed to know the law. Governor Tilden, then, has a majority of one vote in the Electoral College, or 185 votes, besides the votes of South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana, which are attempted to be stolen from him and to which he is justly and clearly entitled—just as clearly as Mr. Hayes is entitled to the six votes of California, or as he would have been to the three Oregon votes if the Republican candidates had all been eligible to the office of Elector. This gives him 204 Electoral votes. His popular majority is known to be between 200,000 and 400,000. There is no denying the fact that Mr. Tilden has been elected, and Senator Hager, together with thousands of others—we might say all candid men throughout the country—are of the opinion that there is no escaping from an announcement by the President of the Senate to this effect: "Samuel J. Tilden is duly elected President of the United States for the next four years." And nothing but revolution, whether peaceful or otherwise, can prevent his inauguration. If he shall fail of inauguration, then popular elections will have become a farce and a republican form of government in the United States a stupendous failure. But we hope and believe it will come out all right—just as the people have decreed. "Vox populi, vox Dei."

ARRANT HYPOCRISY.—Republicans spread their elevated digits in holy horror over the fact that Governor Grover of Oregon will not commission any but constitutionally eligible persons to act as Presidential Electors from that State. But how are they affected in regard to the bayoneted States? Oh! that's a bird of entirely different plumage! It is all right to throw out the votes of States once in rebellion, to any extent necessary, though they have in law and justice the same rights in the Union to-day as California or any other State. There is no use of mincing this matter at all. The same old feeling of hatred toward the South prevails to-day with a great portion of the Republican party as did during the war, and they are determined that their—the Republican party—shall not be turned out of power by the aid of the South, if it can be prevented by any means, fair or foul, legal or illegal. Yet they will draw a long face and tell you "all we want is a fair count," "there was intimidation," etc. And this, too, knowing that the polls and all the election machinery were in the control and management of the chosen appointees of their own party. What arrant hypocrisy they manifest. It would seem that the shame of such a course would deter them. It would any one capable of shame.

WHY IS IT?—The people wonder why it is that with silver fifteen cents higher in England than it was when our half-dollars were first depreciated, and with trade dollars at 1½ per cent. premium in San Francisco, still the half-dollar is kept down to 6½ per cent. discount? Why do not some of our expert financiers enlighten the people on this point? Our columns are open for an explanation, which would be thankfully received.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.—Mr. L. M. McKenney is canvassing this part of the State for matter for a "Business Directory" of San Francisco and the principal towns of California and Nevada for 1877.

Did Gov. Grover Do Right?

This is the question. There has been such wanton and bitter denunciation of Governor Grover for giving a certificate of election as a Presidential Elector of the State of Oregon to Cronin instead of Watts, that we feel that we should give to the public a fair and impartial statement of the law and the facts which governed his action; and such a statement is a full and complete justification of him. Watts was disqualified; this is a conceded fact; Oregon was entitled to three Electors. The three qualified candidates who received the highest number of votes under the laws of that State were duly elected. But it is said that Watts received more votes than Cronin. The answer is, he was not qualified to receive any votes, and in contemplation of law did not receive a vote. But those who claim that Cronin was not elected and entitled to his certificate assert the proposition that when two candidates run for an office one of whom is ineligible but for whom a majority of the votes are cast, the other is defeated and there is no election of either of them. It was so decided under the statutes of this State in the case of Saunders vs. Haynes, 13 Cal. Rep. 145, and there is a dictum to the same effect in the case of the State of Wisconsin vs. Giles, and the question was so decided by a majority of the Court in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Cluly, 56 Penn. State Rep. 270. But Chief Justice Thompson dissented from the decision and said:

"But I confess my inability to see why, if the constitutional disqualification of the defendent be established, the relator is not entitled to the office. He had votes enough to elect him if the votes given for the defendant be regarded as thrown away. This cannot be disputed. It seems to me this position cannot be controverted—that if the votes cast for the defendant would not confer the office on him, that they did not possess the faculty or capacity of depriving the plaintiff of his election, having as already said enough legal votes to elect him. The majority of votes cast operates only in one direction, namely, to elect, and by electing, defeat any competitor; but without electing, I deny that the effect is to defeat a competing candidate. The thing is not possible. If it were, a majority of votes for a fictious candidate, or one notoriously ineligible, would defeat any eligible candidate. The elective franchise cannot operate in such a way. If people do not vote generally, they consent that those who do may elect. This is the rule in all popular elections. If, therefore, people do not vote for candidates who can by law exercise the offices voted for, it seems to me to follow that they tacitly consent that those who do vote for such as are eligible shall elect on equivalent principles. It never can be an answer to this position that the electors did not know of the ineligibility of the candidate. If such an excuse were good for anything, it ought to be good to render effective the votes for the ineligible candidate, and thus give him the office in spite of the existing disqualifications."

According to the doctrine laid down by Chief Justice Thompson, Cronin was elected, and this doctrine is sustained both by reason and the weight of authority. We refer to some of them. Gulick vs. New, 14 Indiana Rep. 93; Carson vs. McPhetridge, 15 Indiana Rep. 327; Stuart vs. Hayes, 3 Chicago Leg. News 117; Kempf vs. Boal, 46 Mo. Rep. 551; Commonwealth vs. Read, 2 Ashmead (Pennsylvania) 261; Rex vs. Parry, 14 East Rep. 549; Rex vs. Hawkins, 10 East 211. There are many other authorities, both in England and the United States, which sustain the proposition that when one of two candidates is ineligible, though a majority of the loyal votes may be cast for him, yet the other may be elected; and among such other authorities is the case of Regina vs. Coaks, 28 Eng. Law and Equity Rep. 307, from which we quote a remark of Lord Chief Justice Campbell. He said: "Now it is the law, both the common law and parliamentary law, and it seems to me also common sense, that if an elector will vote for a man he knows is ineligible it is as if he did not vote at all, or voted for a non-existent person; as it has been said, as if he gave his vote for the man in the moon." As they have no statute regulating this question in Oregon, but the common law or the unwritten law is the rule of decision in that State, the remark of Lord Chief Justice Campbell becomes significant—it is the law of Oregon. It will be observed that Mr. Cushing, in his learned work upon the Law and Practice of Legislative Assemblies, at page 67, says: "It seems not unreasonable to consider the votes for ineligible candidates to be thrown away in all cases, and the opposing candidate elected when the electors know, or must be presumed to know, the disability." It will not be pretended that the people of Oregon did not know that Watts was a Postmaster, and consequently disqualified to hold or be elected to the office of Presidential Elector; and this brings the case within the rule as laid down by Mr. Cushing, and shows that Governor Grover acted in the line of his legal and constitutional duty. Who then, but the Republican blood-hounds should howl upon his track? No fair-minded or honest man will condemn his action in this matter.

WIGGINTON ELECTED.—It seems that the Clerk of Monterey county constituted himself a "Returning Board," and sent up to the Secretary of State a different result from that shown upon the face of the election returns of that county as canvassed by the Board of Supervisors. Markley, the Clerk, gave the result of Wigginton's vote as 986, when the official returns showed it to be 988. Wigginton sued out a writ of mandate, compelling Mr. Clerk to certify to the true returns, which he reluctantly complied with rather than suffer the consequences, and the result is that Mr. Wigginton (after all the blow and bluster of the Radicals over the success of Pacheco,) is elected to Congress from the Fourth District.

FOR DELIVERY.—Mr. Simpson has received Mrs. Rhodes' book, containing her husband's (Caxton's) writings, which is now ready for delivery to subscribers.

THE PARTISAN, LYING TELEGRAPH. There never was a more one-sided monopoly than the Associated Press of this coast. Its dispatches from the East are mainly made up by Simonton, one of the owners of the Bulletin and Call, two of the most radical Republican papers on this coast, yet at the same time pretending to be the most fair and candid. Their "news" is one-sided, manufactured expressly in the interest of the Hayes party. Yet Democrats support these papers with their coin, paying daily for their lies and lashes. The money that is paid the Radical papers of this coast by the Democrats would sustain a first-class daily Democratic paper, and we believe that if such a paper were started—one that would give the actual news of the day—it would be well sustained. One thing is certain—that so long as the Radicals control the news, and give it to or keep it from the public, as it suits them, there will be little probability of keeping them where they belong in this State, and where many think they really are to-day—in the minority.

DISTRICT COURT.—There will be a session of this Court for Yolo County on Saturday next, for hearing motions, etc.

THE SUN.

1877. NEW YORK. 1877.

The different editions of THE SUN during the next year will be the same as during the year that has just passed. The daily edition will on week days be a sheet of four pages, and on Sundays a sheet of eight pages or 56 broad columns; while the weekly edition will be a sheet of eight pages of the same dimensions and character that are already familiar to our friends.

THE SUN will continue to be the strenuous advocate of reform and retrenchment, and of the substitution of statesmanship, wisdom and integrity for hollow pretence, imbecility, and fraud in the administration of public affairs. It will contend for the government of the people by the people and for the people, as opposed to government by frauds in the ballot-box and in the counting of votes, enforced by military violence. It will endeavor to supply its readers—a body now not far from a million of souls—with the most careful, complete, and trustworthy accounts of current events, and will employ for this purpose a numerous and carefully selected staff of reporters and correspondents. Its reports from Washington, especially, will be full, accurate and fearless; and it will doubtless continue to deserve and enjoy the hatred of those who thrive by plundering the Treasury or by usurping what the law does not give them, while it will endeavor to merit the confidence of the public by defending the rights of the people against the encroachments of unjustified power.

The price of the daily SUN will be 55 cents a month or $6.50 a year, post paid, or with the Sunday edition, $7 70 a year.

The SUNDAY edition alone, eight pages, $1.20 a year, post paid.

The WEEKLY SUN, eight pages of 56 broad columns, will be furnished during 1877 at the rate of $1 a year, post paid.

The benefit of this large reduction from the previous rate for the WEEKLY can be enjoyed by individual subscribers without the necessity of making up clubs. At the same time, if any of our friends choose to aid in extending our circulation, we shall be grateful to them, and every such person who sends us ten or more subscribers from one place will be entitled to one copy of the paper for himself without charge. At one dollar a year, postage paid, the expenses of paper and printing are barely repaid; and, considering the size of the sheet and the quality of its contents, we are confident the people will consider THE WEEKLY SUN the cheapest newspaper published in the world, and we trust also one of the very best.

WHAT PAYS?

It pays every Manufacturer, Merchant, Mechanic, Inventor, Farmer, or Professional man, to keep informed on all the improvements and discoveries of the age.

It pays the head of every family to introduce into his household a newspaper that is instructive, one that fosters a taste for investigation, and promotes thought and encourages discussion among the members.

The Scientific American

which has been published weekly for the last thirty-one years, does this, to an extent beyond that of any other publication; in fact it is the only weekly paper published in the United States, devoted to Manufactures, Mechanics, Inventions and New Discoveries in the Arts and Sciences.

Every number is profusely illustrated and its contents embrace the latest and most interesting information pertaining to the Industrial, Mechanical and Scientific Progress of the World; Descriptions, with Beautiful Engravings of New Inventions, New Implements, New Processes, and Improved Industries of all kinds; Useful Notes, Recipes, Suggestions and Advice by Practical Writers, for Workmen and Employers, in all the various arts, forming a complete repertory of New Inventions and Discoveries; containing a weekly record, not only of the progress of the Industrial Arts in our own country, but also of all New Discoveries and Inventions in every branch of Engineering, Mechanics and Science abroad.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has been the foremost of all industrial publications for the past thirty-one years. It is the oldest, largest, cheapest, and the best weekly illustrated paper devoted to Engineering, Mechanics, Chemistry, New Inventions, Science and Industrial Progress, published in the world.

The practical Recipes are well worth ten times the subscription price, and for the shop and house will save many times the cost of subscription.

Merchants, Farmers, Mechanics, Engineers, Inventors, Manufacturers, Chemists, Lovers of Science, and People of all Professions, will find the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN useful to them. It should have a place in every Family, Library, Study, Office and Counting Room; in every Reading Room, College and School. A new volume commences January 1st, 1877.

A year's numbers contain 832 pages and SEVERAL HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS. Thousands of volumes are preserved for binding and reference. Terms, $3.20 a year by mail, including postage. Discount to Clubs. Special copies mailed on receipt of 10 cents. May be had of all News Dealers.

PATENTS. In connection with the Scientific American, Messrs. MUNN & Co. are solicitors of American and Foreign Patents, and have the largest establishment in the world. More than fifty thousand applications have been made for patents through their agency.

Patents are obtained on the best terms. Models of New Inventions and Sketches examined, and advice free. A special notice is made in the "Scientific American" of all inventions Patented through this Agency, with the name and residence of the Patentee. Patents are often sold in part or whole, to persons attracted to the invention by such notice. A pamphlet, containing full directions for obtaining Patents sent free. "The Scientific American Reference Book," a volume bound in cloth and gilt, containing the Patent Laws, Census of the U. S., and 142 Engravings of mechanical movements. Price 25 cents.

District Court Summons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Sixth Judicial District, State of California, County of Yolo.

BANK OF WOODLAND, Plaintiff, vs. I. M. SMITH, Defendant.

The People of the State of California send greeting to I. M. SMITH:

You are hereby summoned to appear and answer the complaint of the BANK OF WOODLAND in said Court filed against you within ten days from the service of this writ, exclusive of the day of service, if served on you in this county; if served out of this county, but within this Judicial District, within twenty days; but if served on you without said District, then in forty days from such service, exclusive of the day of service, in an action commenced on the 7th day of December, 1876, in said Court.

Said action is brought to recover judgment for the sum of $112.60 U. S. gold coin, with interest on $100 thereof at the rate of 1¼ per cent. per month from the 23d day of December, 1874, compounded monthly, with interest at like rate on $9.93 from the 4th day of December, 1876, and on $2.67 from the 6th day of December, 1876, the same being due Plaintiff on a Promissory Note executed to said Plaintiff by said Defendant, and for taxes paid on the premises described in the Complaint, also to foreclose a mortgage on the following premises, to-wit: Commencing at a point 140 feet south from the northwest corner of lot No. 2 of Block No. 2 Fiske & Messenger's Addition to the Town of Woodland, running thence east 135 feet, thence south 70 feet, thence west 135 feet, thence north 70 feet to the place of beginning, also for costs of suit; and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the complaint as directed, Plaintiff will take default and apply to the Court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I, D. M. BURNS, Clerk of the Sixth Judicial District Court aforesaid, do hereunto set my hand and affix the Seal of said Court, at office in Woodland, this 7th day of December, A.D. 1876.

Trustees' Sale.

WHEREAS, GEORGE J. LUCE, WM. H. LUCE, JOHN E. AGER and L. D. KELLY, doing business in the firm name of LUCE BROTHERS & CO., on the first day of November, 1875, made, executed and delivered to the PACIFIC PNEUMATIC GAS COMPANY, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of California, their two certain Promissory Notes, each for the sum of four thousand dollars in U. S. gold coin, bearing date November 1st, 1875, and drawing interest at the rate of one per cent. per month, from date, one of which became due and payable four months, and the other one year from the date thereof. And whereas, in pursuance of an agreement made on the said 1st day of November, 1875, between said Luce Brothers & Co. and the said Pacific Pneumatic Gas Company, there has been transferred and assigned to me two hundred shares of the capital stock of the Woodland Gas Company, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of California, in trust as a security for the payment of said promissory notes; and whereas by said agreement I was authorized, empowered and directed, in case of a default in the payment of either of said promissory notes, to sell at public auction in the manner prescribed by said agreement, so many shares of said capital stock as should be necessary to pay the amount due thereon, on demand of the said Pneumatic Gas Company. And whereas default has been made in the payment of the said promissory note that became due one year from its date; and whereas the said Pacific Pneumatic Gas Company has demanded such sale—Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Trustee as aforesaid,

NOTICE is hereby given that I will sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, in U. S. gold coin, on FRIDAY, THE 15TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1876, at one o'clock P. M., at the Court House door, in the town of Woodland, two hundred shares of the capital stock of the Woodland Gas Company, or so many shares thereof as shall be sufficient to pay the sum of $4,000, in U. S. gold coin, with interest thereon at the rate of one per cent. per month from the 1st day of November, 1875.

PATENT SPRING BED FACTORY!

It being a conceded fact that the human family spend at least one-third of their time in bed, it is of the most vital importance that they should use

THE BEST BEDS!

We having been engaged in the manufacture of PATANT SPRING BEDS over three years, and studied the subject in all its bearings, we flatter ourselves that in placing the

CALIFORNIA FAVORITE SPRING BED

Before the public it will meet the favor it so richly deserves. For elasticity, durability, health and cleanliness, it has no equal. It contains

FORTY-FIVE STEEL SPIRAL SPRINGS!

With hook and leather connections to a strong double acting frame with Steel End Supporters, thus making a soft, noiseless Spring-edged Bed.

Being made of the Best Material, and the price within the reach of all, it is destined to become the leading Spring Bed on this Coast,

PATENTED, OCTOBER 17, 1876.

Town and County Matters

CHURCH SERVICES IN GOOD TEMPLARS' HALL NEXT SUNDAY.—All persons are cordially invited—particularly those who have no other religious engagement for the day—to attend divine service on Sunday, the 17th instant, at 11 A.M. and at 6:30 P.M., in the Good Templars' Hall. Officiating Clergyman, the Rev. J. W. Bancroft. Subject of the morning sermon: "Signs of the Second Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ. 'From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.'" Subject of the evening discourse: "The Creation, according to the Bible and Geology. 'Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the Word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.'"

LIBRARY ENTERTAINMENT.—The ladies of the Woodland Library Association will give a public entertainment at Washington Hall on Wednesday evening next, December 20th, the proceeds of which are to be turned over to the Library Fund. Each lady is expected to present at the door a pound package, value not less than twenty-five cents, which will entitle her to admission; gentlemen free. Light refreshments will be provided. The Hall is large, well lighted and pleasant and no doubt the novelties and inducements will attract a large crowd. The ladies desire us to extend a general and cordial invitation.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.—M. F. Jones is again pushing the organ business, having recently contracted for 100 of the celebrated Clough & Warren manufacture, which received the diploma of honor and the medal of highest merit at the Philadelphia Centennial Exposition, which places these instruments in the highest rank of reed instruments manufactured in the world. Thirty have been received, and five were sold last week. Mr. Jones finds ready sale and delivers directly to family residences throughout the county.

BALL MATCH.—The base ball match which took place between the Silver Stars and Pacifics on Saturday last for a purse of $50 was won by the Pacifics. The conditions were that the Silver Stars should give the Pacifics 25 tallies and play them for $25 a side. The score stood 39 for the Silver Stars and 15 for their opponents; and with the 25 tallies added, makes the score 40 to 39 in favor of the Pacifics, they winning by one run. C. H. Garoutte acted as Umpire, and A. Smith and C. L. Hollingsworth as Scorers.

LA CREME DE LA CREME.—No. 36 of this, best of musical monthlies for advanced players, is received. It contains three excellent pieces, as follows: Sleep Sweet Child, Fantasie; sold in sheet form for 40 cents; Dancing Waves, Barcarolle, sold at 40 cents; and Turkish March, Alla Turka, 60 cents. Yet this monthly comes at $2 a year only—single numbers 25 cents. Address: J. L. Peters, 843 Broadway, New York. See Mr. Peters' advertisement, "A Gift for Wife, Brother, Sister or Sweetheart."

ADVENT QUARTERLY MEETING AND PREACHING.—The next quarterly meeting of the Seventh-Day Adventist Church of Woodland will occur on the 23d and 24th of the present month. Elder J. N. Loughborough will be here and deliver several discourses, preaching on Thursday evening, Dec. 21st, again Friday evening 22d, and on Saturday and Sunday, 23d and 24th, at 11 A. M. and at 6:30 P. M. All are invited to attend.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Mr. C. W. Proctor has purchased the drug business of Messrs. Hounson & Machefert, of which he has taken possession. Mr. P. is very well and very favorbly known in this community, and we have no doubt will do a thriving business. Being himself a thorough, practical druggist and chemist will be greatly in his favor. We reserve space for his cards to appear next week.

FINE RURAL RESIDENCE.—Messrs. Stamp and Shields have just completed a large house for Mr. Robert Moore, on his ranch five miles west of town. We are not able to give its dimensions, but as we passed it before completion it presented a fine appearance from the road. Mr. Moore has just moved his family into his new house. The ranch is extensive and very productive.

TAXES.—The Collector informs us that thus far less than $25,000 has been paid, out of a total of $180,000. Taxpayers must remember that if not paid before the first Monday in January, which this year comes on the first day of the month, taxes on that day become delinquent.

ROLL OF HONOR for Union School for the month ending December 8th, 1876:

C. A. COLE, Teacher.

GRANGE LECTURE.—State Lecturer Blakey Pilkington will lecture to the Grangers of Yolo County in the Grange Hall in Woodland on Monday next at 1 P. M. All the Grangers in the county are invited to be present.

COLLEGE EXHIBITION.—The College exhibition, previous to the holiday vacation, will take place at the College Chapel on Thursday evening Dec. 21st.

GRANGERS' ELECTION.—The Grangers will elect officers for the next term on Saturday next. All are invited to be present.

Board of Supervisors.

Board met Dec. 11th; present, full Board.

English Cut—Contract completed and warrant drawn in favor of Lee & Sill for the sum of $1.100.

Mrs. S. S. Nixon was allowed the sum of $25 from the Hospital Fund for the relief of herself and children.

Clerk of the Board is directed to ascertain whether the road leading from Washington to Davisville is a legally established highway.

S. S. Hinsdale was refunded $6 for road and poll tax twice paid.

Road No. 123—The Report of Viewers adopted and Mrs. Hildebrand allowed $175 damages and J. W. Hildebrand $75.

Contract for jail cells accepted and an order drawn in favor of James McGuire for $2,722.25 in payment therefor.

The Sheriff is authorized to have stairway cut from his office leading to the new basement jail.

Hoppin Road—Matter continued to first day of next term.

Hospital Warden allowed $25 for incidental Hospital expenses.

Petitions for formation of School Districts in Merritt and Quicksilver precincts received and set for hearing first day of next term.

THE NEW YORK OBSERVER is out with its prospectus for the fifty-fifth year. It is a large paper of the first class, and should be in every family in the land. Those who do not take it should send for a specimen copy at once, or, better yet, should send the price for a year. Any person desiring a comprehensive weekly newspaper, filled with just the news that every family wants, and free from clap-trap or objectional matter of any kind, will hardly do better than to send $3.15 to S. I. Prime, & Co., 37 Park Row, New York, and receive the Observer postpaid.

GOOD INDICATION.—The New York Nation, which supported Hayes, now asks him if he can possibly accept the Presidential office, when he knows that the Louisiana Returning Board is composed of thieves; and knows that Tilden has an actual majority in Louisiana of 7,000 votes? The Springfield Republican, another Hayes paper, says, public opinion is slowly but surely moving against the dangerous preparations of the Radicals to get rid of Tilden's actual majority in Louisiana of 7,000 to 9,000 votes.

NEW PATENTS.—Through Dewey & Co., Patent Agents, S. F., we receive the following list of U. S. Patents, granted to Pacific Coast inventors, viz: John P. Everetz, S. F., burglar alarms; A. H. Putnam, Oakland, miter machines; Charles DeLacy, S. F., explosive compositions; Richard Hillyer, S. F., pile drivers; Antone Pfeiffer, S. F., tap and faucet; John O. Rollins, Truckee, axes; Percy Beamish, S. F., (trade-mark) gentlemen's shirts and underwear; Albert Man & Co., S. F., (trade-mark) soap.

MASQUERADE.—A grand masquerade ball will be given by the Frahm Bros. at the City Hotel, Dixon on Friday evening, January 12th, 1877. These gentlemen are old caterers to the public and do everything thoroughly. We return thanks for a complimentary invitation, and for the proprietors, extend a respectful invitation to the ladies and gentlemen of Woodland.

GONE BELOW.—Charley St Louis, not satisfied with the fine assortment of articles on hand, has gone to the Bay to purchase another large supply for the holidays. All there is about it is just this: the establishment which has the goods required by the public will sell them. Charley is determined to have every thing likely to be called for in his line.

FOR TILDEN & HENDRICKS.—The Democratic Electors "appointed" in accordance with the Constitution, the law and a majority of the votes of the citizens of those States, met at the time appointed by law in South Carolina, Louisiana and Florida and cast their votes for Tilden and Hendricks for President and Vice-President of the United States.

FRANK LESLIE'S ILLUSTRATED ALMANAC FOR 1877 has been received and is for sale by E. Berg, newsdealer; price 50 cents. Leslie's is the most elaborately illustrated of all the almanacs, and comprises 64 pages well filled with appropriate reading matter. Call at the News Depot.

THE $10,000 RACE.—The great four mile and repeat race in San Francisco on Saturday last, between "Mollie McCarthy" and "Mattie A" for a purse of $10,000, was won by "Mollie" in two straight heats. Time—7:38¼ and 7:52½. "Mattie" pressed "Mollie" closely throughout.

PROSPECTUSES.—We call the attention of our readers to the card of the New York Sun, the ablest and best Reform paper in America, also to that of the Scientific American, which stands unrivalled in its particular sphere.

DEATH.—Jas. Laidly, Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge of Masons of California, died in San Francisco on Tuesday last. The funeral will take place on Sunday next under the auspices of the Grand Lodge.

The counting in of Hayes, if carried out, will imperil all the business interests of the country, and produce a degree of ruin and suffering such as this country has never seen.

I. X. L. STORE.—See the new advertisement of this establishment, which offers favorable inducements to purchasers.

MOUNTAIN APPLES.—A nice lot just received, at J. H. EATON & SON'S. 4

A TRUE STATEMENT.

Proper and Legal Action of the Oregon Electoral College.

The following statement signed by the Democratic candidates for Presidential Electors, Messrs. Cronin, Laswell and Klippell, was published in the Salem Oregon Daily Evening Mercury of December 8th, headed "A True Statement."

To the People of Oregon: Inasmuch as grossly false statements purporting to relate to what occured at the holding of the Electoral College to-day are being industriously circulated by members of the Republican party, we, the undersigned, submit the following as a faithful detail of the proceedings in question in said Electoral College, held in Salem on the 6th day of December, 1876, at the hour of 12 M. There was present in the room designated as the one in which the Electoral vote should be cast the following persons: J. C. Cartright, W. H. Odell, J. H. Watts, Henry Klippell, W. B. Laswell and E. A. Cronin. At said hour the door of the room in which said Electoral vote was to be cast was opened, and the Secretary of the State handed to Mr. Cronin an envelope containing a certificate in triplicate of the election as Electors of E. A. Cronin, J. C. Cartright and W. H. Odell. After handing the certificates to Mr. Cronin the Secretary retired from the room. Immediately afterwards Mr. Cartright opened the door and admitted Mr. Minto, a police officer of the city of Salem, and Deputy United States Marshal. Mr. Minto upon entering closed the door, locked it, and took the key, whereupon Mr. Cronin requested him to leave the room. Cartright and Odell insisted at first upon Minto remaining, but finally, upon the request of Cartright, Minto retired, leaving the key in the door. Mr. Odell then locked the door, and took the key, but upon the request of the Democrats replaced the key in the door. Mr. Cronin then read in the presence and hearing of all those in the room one of the certificates showing the election of himself, Odell and Cartright. After the reading Cronin inquired of Odell and Cartright if they were ready to vote with him and proceed with their business as Electors. They answered by demanding the certificates in Cronin's possession, Cartright acting as principal spokesman. Cronin, in reply, proposed to proceed with the vote for President and Vice-President, stating in effect that the certificates would be produced and attached to the certificates showing the result. Cartright and Odell refused to proceed, and requested Klippel and Lassell to retire, which they declined to do. Cartright arose and addressing Cronin, said: "If you want a row, you may as well have it now as at any other time." Cronin said: "Sit down; we are not here to have a row, but to vote for President;" and again requested Odell and Cartright to proceed with the election. Cartright then moved that Odell act as Chairman, and upon the vote of himself and Odell declared the motion carried, and Odell then appointed Cartright Secretary. Dr. Watts then read a paper proporting to be his resignation as Elector. Cartright moved the acceptance of the pretended resignation. It was declared carried, and immediately thereafter, by a vote of two, Watts was declared elected to fill the vacancy. These proceedings were interrupted by a dialogue, which had the character of an altercation, on the one side and Cartright and Odell on the other, Cartright insisting that the latter should act with him and proceed with the business of the College, and they refusing to do so. After the pretended appointment of Watts, Cronin arose, and addressing Cartright and Odell, said in effect, if not in these words: "Gentlemen, do you refuse to act with me in proceeding with the business of the Electoral College?" One or both of them replied, signifying an unqualified refusal. Cronin then said that this refusal to act created vacancies in the Electoral College, and that he appointed J. N. T. Miller of Jackson county, to fill one of the vacancies. Mr. Miller having been introduced into the room and informed of what had taken place, asked Cartright and Odell if they had refused to act with Cronin in casting the vote of the State. Cartright, answering, said they had so refused. Miller then signified his willingness to accept the appointment. The two then appointed John Parker of Linn county, to fill the second vacancy. Miller was elected President of the College and Parker Secretary, and the votes were taken by ballot for President and Vice-President, and the business formally proceeded to the end. Pending these proceedings, Cartright, Watts and Odell were engaged in signing papers.

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—Having examined Gruwell & Co's "Favorite" patent spring bed, advertised in this paper, we became interested in it, as we are in everything that possesses real intrinsic merit. We could not forgo the temptation of buying one of them, and as the result of a thorough test, we unhesitatingly pronounce it superior to anything of the kind we ever used. We have been using the old style covered mattress and the patent slat bed, and finding the new kind preferable to either of the others and desiring to have the best, we naturally set aside the one heretofore used and procured the "Favorite." It seems to us to combine the excellences of all classes of spring beds in one. In the first place it is a blessing to any lady who does her own work, saving an immense amount of labor, thereby tending to preserve health and prolong existence. Being an open bed, it is always aired and ready for use. Then again they are a great boon in sickness, as after convalescence the mattress can be moved by a child and sunned; whereas, the old style either has to remain on the bedstead or requires the assistance of two men to get it out of the house. These new style patent spring beds are manufactured in our town. They are sold to responsible parties on trial and guaranteed to give satisfaction. Give them a trial and encourage an already thriving industry.

FOUND.—A few days since a gentleman's leather wallet was found in Woodland containing a bank check and other valuable papers. The owner can recover it by calling at this office, describing the wallet and contents and paying for this notice and such reward to the finder as he may see proper.

A Fragrant Breath and Pearly Teeth

Are easily obtained by cleansing your teeth daily with that justly popular dentifrice, SOZODONT. Composed of rare antiseptic herbs, it imparts whiteness to the teeth, a delicious aroma to the breath, and preserves intact, from youth to old age, the teeth. Acidity of the stomach will destroy the strongest teeth unless its effects are counteracted with SOZODONT, and this pure tooth-wash protects the dental surfaces by removing every impurity that adheres to them. Ask your druggist for SOZODONT.

A Case of Thirty Years Standing.

EAST AURORA, N. Y., May 22d, 1872.

MESSRS. SETH W. FOWLE & SONS:

Gentlemen—I was troubled with Dyspepsia for thirty years, and tried several medicines advertised for the cure of this distressing complaint without deriving any benefit from them. About a year ago I commenced taking the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and after using altogether twelve bottles I find myself entirely cured. I consider my case one of the worst I ever heard of, and I take great pleasure in recommending the PERUVIAN SYRUP to all Dyspeptics, believing that it will be sure to cure them.

Yours respectfully, J. T. BOWEN.

The Yolo Democrat.

Thursday, Dec. 14th, 1876.

God in the Storm.

"Did you hear the storm last night, my child,
As it burst o'er the midnight sky,
When the thunder rattled loud and wild
And the lightning flicker'd by ?"
"I heard no tempest, mother mine—
I was buried in slumber sweet;
Dreaming I stood in the soft moonshine,
With flowers about my feet."

"Can it be, my child, that you did not hear
The roar of the tempest breath,
As it scatter'd the rent leaves far and near
In many an eddying wreath ?"
"No, mother, my happy sleep was full
Of gentle and holy things—
Shapes that were graceful and beautiful,
And the music of angels' wings."

Yet the storm was loud my darling child—
There was death on the hurrying blast;
And vapors dark overhead were piled,
As the hoarse wind bellowed past."
"I thought not of clouds, my mother dear,
When I rose from my nurse's knee;
You taught me that God is forever near,
So what danger could I see ?"

"I taught you well my sinless one;
Yet my own weak spirit quail'd,
And the midnight blast roll'd madly on
And the moon's calm lustre fail'd."
"Were you wrong, then, mother, when you said
That God's eye turned not away,
But in darkness watched about my bed
As it did my path by day ?"

"I am rebuked !" was the meek reply,
As the mother bent her knee;
"On the lips of babes may a lesson lie—
I have learn'd one, child, from thee;
His wrath, which makes the sinner weep,
By a guilty conscience vex'd,
Does but deepen the sinless infant's sleep,
And rock it to gentle rest.

And while thunders hoarsely peal around,
Speaking woe to the worldling's ear,
The world in His mercy stills their sound,
When innocence is near;
And while his living fire appalls
The guilty here below,
The shadow of the Saviour falls
On childhood's sleeping brow."

General News Items.

The Republicans carry this State by 2,759 majority.

The Democratic wing of the South Carolina Legislature has a Constitutional quorum—63.

Nicholas, Comander-in-cheif of the active Russian army, has arrived at Koschneff with his staff.

Chamberlain is to be proceeded against in South Carolina for usurping the Government of that State.

John Morrissey has declared "off" all the pools sold by him on the direct result of the Presidential election.

The Democrats intend to fight this campaign out on the line of the Constitution and the laws, as long as the Constitutiou and laws are allowed to exist.

The New York Press don't seem to admire the President's message. The public looked to it for something on the live issues of the day but found not a word!

The House of Representatives will probably refuse to recognize Colorado, as that State has not complied with the law of its creation. This would defeat Hayes.

"At this moment it would be hardly safe to bet that anybody was sure of entering the White House on the 4th of March next." Last Saturday's Record came down to this.

Tweed and his "ring" plundered the treasury of the city of New York, but the Radical "rings" at the South are engaged in stealing electoral votes to make a President, after having stolen millions of money from the State treasury.

Fire Marshall Kennedy is of the opinion that 350 perished in the Brooklyn Theater fire. Claude Burroughs, an actor, was among the dead. Kate Claxton, leading actress, lost $10,000; and Jarrett & Palmer, lessees of the theater, lost $30,000.

Tilden carried twenty and Hayes eighteen of the thirty-eight States in the November election. The aggregate popular majority for Tilden over Hayes is set down at 369,500. Democratic gains over 1872, 1,137,100. Republican gains, none.

Ben. Butler summed up the situation a few days ago as follows: "If the Republican party adopt and push the policy now urged by certain rash leaders, there will not be a fragment of it left when the people get a chance to vote it into exile and disgrace."

If it had been believed before the election that before the first of December the Republicans would do the things they have been doing for the last three weeks, they could hardly have got the vote of a single State. Vermont and Maine would have voted against them, and even Iowa would have been doubtful.

Secretary Don Cameron says in a private note: "The theory that the army and its officers are responsible to the people is about played out. That soldiers of experience and courage should be held amenable to pettifogging legislators whom they can make or unmake, is extremely absurd. If Congress wishes to hear from the army during the next session it can undoubtedly be accommodated."

The average price of silver in London is now 55 pence per ounce which is an advance of 7 pence within ten months! Eight months ago American half dollars in California were at 6 per cent. discount as compared with gold and they remain at that discount still, yet silver is at 10 per cent. higher than then and gold is all of 5 per cent lower! Why do not half dollars take their usual place at par, asks the Bee.

Summing up the work of the Louisiana Board so far, the Herald comes to the conclusion that "these people go on as though they really believed that the Republican party in the North was as lost to all decency and fair play as themselves. They do not appear to see that they are making it impossible for Gov. Hayes, who is a reputable citizen with a character to lose, to accept the Presidency at their hands."

THE DANGER TO THE REPUBLIC.—Perhaps there are hardly five persons out of a hundred in this country who have any real conception of the great danger which now threatens the very existence of our constitutional form of Government. They do not know that they are standing on a volcano, and, like the people before the deluge, they carelessly feast and dance. We have no hesitation here to assert that, bitterly as we have opposed Hayes, we would ten thousand times sooner see him enter the White House to-day with the constitutional guarantees still intact and the ballot box still the respected arbiter of our political affairs, than have him inaugurated on the 4th of March next by fraud, and the sanctity of the ballot box destroyed. In the first case there would at least be hope for the future; in the latter case all would be dismal and gloomy. Indeed, if the Returning Boards of the three Southern States count Hayes in, though he may not have received a lawful majority of the votes in those States, then the "beginning of the end" of the Republic will have commenced.—Washington Telegram.

Centaur Liniments!

The Quickest, Surest and Cheapest Remedies.

Physicians recommend, and Farriers declare that no such remedies have ever before been in use. Words are cheap, but the proprietors of these articles will present trial bottles to medical men, gratis, and will guarantee more rapid and satisfactory results than have ever before been obtained.

The Centaur Liniment, White Wrapper, will cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, Caked Breasts, Sore Nipples, Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Swellings, Sprains, and any ordinary FLESH, BONE OR MUSCLE AILMENT.

It will extract the poison of bites and stings, and heal burns or scalds without a scar. Lock-jaw, Palsy, Weak Back, Caked Breasts, Earache, Toothache, Itch and Cutaneous Eruptions readily yield to its treatment.

Henry Black, of Ada, Hardin Co., Ohio, says: "My wife has had rheumatism for five years—no rest, no sleep—could scarcely walk across the floor. She is now completely cured by the use of Centaur Liniment. We all feel thankful to you, and recommend your wonderful medicine to all our friends."

James Hurd, of Zanesville, O., says: "The Centur Liniment cured my neuralgia."

Alfred Tush, of Newark, writes: "Send me one dozen bottles by express. The Liniment has saved my leg. I want to distribute it, etc."

The sale of this Liniment is increasing rapidly.

The Centaur Liniment, Yellow Wrapper, is for the tough skin, flesh and muscles of HORSES, MULES AND ANIMALS.

We have never yet seen a case of Spavin, Sweeny, Ring-bone, Wind-gall, Scratches or Poll-Evil, which this Liniment would not speedily benefit, and we never saw but a few cases which it would not cure. It will cure when anything can. It is folly to spend $20 for a Farrier, when one dollar's worth of Centaur Liniment will do better. The following is a sample of the testimony produced:

"JEFFERSON, Mo., Nov. 10, 1873.

"Some time ago I was shipping horses to St. Louis. I got one badly crippled in the car. With great difficulty I got him to the stable, on Fourth Avenue. The stable-keeper gave me a bottle of your Centaur Liniment, which I used with such success that in two days the horse was active and nearly well. I have been a veterinary surgeon for thirty years, but your liniment heads anything I ever used.

"A. J. M'CARTY, Veterinary Surgeon."

For a postage stamp we will mail a Centaur Almanac, containing hundreds of certificates, from every State in the Union. These Liniments are now sold by all dealers in the country.

Mothers.

Castoria is the result of 20 years' experiments, by Dr. Samuel Pitcher, of Massachusetts. It is a vegetable preparation as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Ind., says of it:

SIRS:—I have tried the Castoria and can speak highly of its merits. It will, I think, do away entirely with Castor Oil; it is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The Castoria destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS GREAT INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, DESIGNED TO COMMEMORATE THE ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE, OPENED MAY 10th, AND WILL CLOSE NOVEMBER 10th, 1876. All the Nations of the world and all the States and Territories of the Union are participating in this wonderful demonstration, bringing together the most comprehensive collection of art treasures, mechanical inventions, scientific discoveries, manufacturing achievements, mineral specimens, and agricultural products ever exhibited. The grounds devoted to the Exhibition are situated on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and embrace four hundred and fifty acres of Fairmount Park, all highly improved and ornamented, on which are erected the largest buildings ever constructed,—five of these covering an area of fifty acres and costing $5,000,000. The total number of buildings erected for the purposes of the Exhibition is near two hundred During the thirty days immediately following the opening of the Exhibition a million and a quarter of people visited it.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD,

THE GREAT TRUNK LINE

—AND—

Fast Mail Route of the United States,

Is the most direct, convenient and economical way of reaching Philadelphia and this great Exhibition from all sections of the country. Its trains to and from Philadelphia will pass through a GRAND CENTENNIAL DEPOT, which the Company have erected at the Main Entrance to the Exhibition Grounds for the accommodation of passengers who wish to stop at or start from the numerous large hotels contiguous to this station and the Exhibition, a convenience of the greatest value to visitors, and afforded exclusively by the Pennsylvania Railroad, which is THE ONLY LINE RUNNING DIRECT TO THE CENTENNIAL BUILDINGS. Excursion trains will also stop at the Encampment of the Patrons of Husbandry, at Elm Station on this road.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD IS THE GRANDEST RAILWAY ORGANIZATION IN THE WORLD. IT CONTROLS SEVEN THOUSAND MILES OF ROADWAY, FORMING CONTINUOUS LINES TO WASHINGTON, OVER WHICH LUXURIOUS DAY AND NIGHT CARS ARE RUN FROM CHICAGO, ST. LOUIS, LOUISVILLE, CINCINNATI, INDIANAPOLIS, COLUMBUS, TOLEDO, CLEVELAND, AND ERIE, WITHOUT CHANGE.

Its main line is laid with double and third tracks of heavy steel rails upon a deep bed of broken stone ballast, and its bridges are all of iron or stone. Its passenger trains are equipped with every known improvement for comfort and safety, and are run at faster speed for greater distances than the trains of any line on the continent. The Company has largely increased its equipment for Centennial travel, and will be prepared to build in its own shops locomotives and passenger cars at short notice sufficient to fully accommodate any extra demand. The unequaled resources at the command of the Company guarantee the most perfect accommodations for its patrons during the Centennial Exhibition.

THE MAGNIFICENT SCENERY for which the Pennsylvania Railroad is so justly celebrated presents to the traveler over its perfect roadway an ever-changing panorama of river, mountain and landscape views unequaled in America.

THE EATING-STATIONS on this line are unsurpassed. Meals will be furnished at suitable hours and ample time allowed for enjoying them.

EXCURSION TICKETS, at reduced rates, will be sold at all principal Railroad Ticket Offices in the West, North-west and South-west.
